and get connected to a live Air Canada customer service agent right away. Whether you're in the U.S. or traveling abroad, their 24/7 support line ensures you always have access to real-time assistance -- day or night.

If you're facing issues like flight delays, cancellations, or last-minute changes, Air Canada's helpline is your direct path to quick solutions. Let's explore how you can reach a live agent

Air Canada offers multiple ways to reach customer care, but calling their 24/7 phone line remains the fastest and most reliable. Here's how you can connect:

1. Call the 24/7 Helpline

You'll be greeted by an automated menu that connects you to the right department -- booking, flight change, baggage, or refund. Once connected, a live Air Canada agent will assist you with:

- Changing or rescheduling your flight
- Requesting a name correction
- Handling baggage delays or lost luggage
- Checking refund or voucher status
- Getting travel policy updates

No long hold times -- just real people ready to solve your issue fast.

2. Use Air Canada's Live Chat

Visit Website and click on "Chat with Us." You can text a Air Canada support specialist in real-time for basic booking questions or minor updates.
